In connection with the termination of the sponsored DR program for Sberbank and our announcement dated May 16, 2022, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Depositary ("J.P. Morgan"), has sold the securities underlying the sponsored DRs of Sberbank (the "Divestment") in accordance with applicable laws, rules and regulations, and terms of the deposit agreement dated June 27, 2011, between J.P. Morgan and Sberbank (as amended, the "Sberbank Deposit Agreement").

The purchase price for the Ordinary Shares of Sberbank in connection with the Divestment as set out in the table below (the "Ordinary Share Purchase Price") represents 30% of the closing price of one Sberbank Ordinary Share published by the Moscow Exchange as of March 13, 2026. The relevant RUB-USD foreign exchange rate used to calculate the Ordinary Share Purchase Price is the rate published by the Bank of Russia for March 13, 2026. The Ordinary Share Purchase Price reflects a mandatory discount required by Russian regulations and terms of the Russian governmental approval obtained for the Divestment after arms-length negotiations with a non-sanctioned purchaser (the "Purchaser"). Neither "exit taxes" to the Russian government nor fees to the National Settlement Depository were paid in connection with the Divestment.

The U.S. Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") issued a specific license, authorizing all U.S. persons, including U.S. financial institutions, intermediaries, and advisors, to engage in all transactions ordinarily incident and necessary to divest to the Purchaser securities issued by Russian entities, including entities that are (i) on OFAC's Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons List ("SDN List") or (ii) otherwise blocked pursuant to OFAC's sanctions targeting Russia. Thus, the authorization covers divestment of Sberbank's Ordinary Shares even though Sberbank is on the SDN List and otherwise blocked. Any holders of outstanding DRs as of the date hereof (the "Remaining DR Holders") wishing to receive proceeds from the Divestment should also assess their obligations to comply with other international sanctions—Remaining DR Holders are responsible for compliance with any rules or regulations, including those related to economic sanctions, that may apply to them as a result of their receipt of any portion of the proceeds from the Divestment.

Remaining DR Holders must surrender their DRs for cancellation through their brokers in order to receive payment of a pro rata share of the liquidation proceeds (after deduction of cancellation fees and any other applicable fees and expenses, the "Net Liquidation Proceeds"). The Net Liquidation Proceeds will be available commencing on/around ten (10) business days from the date hereof (the "Distribution Commencement Date"). After the Distribution

Commencement Date, until surrendered, a DR will represent only the right to a holder's pro rata share in the Net Liquidation Proceeds as provided in the table below; the Remaining DR Holders shall not be entitled to any interest on the Net Liquidation Proceeds.

With the completed Divestment, the Depositary shall be discharged from all obligations in respect of the Deposit Agreement and the DRs, except to account for the Net Liquidation Proceeds.

	Sberbank
Ordinary Share Purchase Price:	US$1.184027
DR Ratio (ORD:DR):	4:1
Gross USD per DR:	$4.736108
Russian Withholding Tax Rate:	0.000000%
Rate per DR (USD)*:	$4.528498
Final Cash Distribution Rate per DR (USD):	$4.476211

* The cash distribution rate per DR reflects the impact of twice-cancelled DRs under the Russian forced conversion laws (Russian Federal Law No. 319-FZ) in 2022. The result of these forced cancellations is that J.P. Morgan may be missing some Sberbank Ordinary Shares and is unable to fully reconcile records of certain outstanding DRs against the underlying Sberbank Ordinary Shares that are actually in custody. In the event J.P. Morgan's recovery efforts are successful and reconciliation with respect to such Ordinary Shares is possible in the future, J.P. Morgan will seek to make additional distributions subject to compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

 The final cash distribution rate per DR is inclusive of a cancellation fee of US$0.05 per DR and all fees, costs and expenses associated with J.P. Morgan's effectuation of the Divestment.
